

I am greatly concerned about possible broadcasting de-regulation. For the health and fairness of our society, we must actively maintain a diversity of media sources. It is the Commission's responsibility to ensure this. Negligence to do this leaves the Commission's priorities highly suspect. Please act on the behalf of an educated and balanced society. Thank you.